There is an opinion that online education better than study at school, nevertheless others think that this kind of education is worst

On the one hand, online education is more comfortable than classic kind. Moreover, it is something new and cool.

On the other hand, sometimes you can have problems with internet, computer, sound or microphone so your teacher can not hear you.

As for me, I think that distance learning is better than education at school, because I have more time to have to do my homework and I have own method and temp of learning.
