Nowadays, it is not always easy to get a power to influence people. To do it in a positive way you need to be authentic and match your private values.

From my point of view, I know some influential things that have impacted on our life greatly and completely changed it. One of these things is a book "Origin of Species" written by Charles Darwin in 1859. This book let people learn our real origin. After this publishing world's science never be the same.

The reason that makes books, films and TV shows resonate with people is 'the fact that people find something that can help them switch to another more enjoyable activity.'

In conclusion, I would like to stress that a true influencer is a person who has an ability to make other people follow and trust him.
