To influence people in a positive way, you need to be authentic. Rather than being a carbon copy of someone else is version of authenticity, uncover what it is that makes you unique in order to start making a positive impact on others.

Discover your special tone on an issue any than live up to and honor that. One of the big reasons social media influencers are so powerful is that they have carved out a niche for themselves or taken a common issue and approached it from a novel or uncommon ~~the~~ way. People instinctively appreciate people whose public person a matches their private values.

In conclusion, I would like to stress that many things affect people both positively and negatively.
