Writing

Mello, dear students and colleagues!
It's time to announce an opening of the history museum in our school!

To start with, the museum is situated on the 2nd floor (next to the math's class) and it contains a diversity of various resources: from pictures to sculptures in a natural size!

There are many reasons to visit the history museum: 1) It's a great opportunity to acquire some valuable knowledge about the history of our country and the world in all. 2) Moreover, there are a plenty of educational resources which will be significant for the history lessons and exams preparation (students may use some of historical books; they can find many pictures and posters depicting the atmosphere of the historical events; one can be closer to valuable and quite useful information); 3) It's just meaningful to ^{improve} ~~improve~~ students' mind and broaden their horizons.

To sum it up, it's a pleasure for us to see you in the history museum soon! We are deeply convinced that it will be not only enjoyable for ~~students~~ you, but ~~only~~ also give you
